

University of Washington

Institute for Nuclear Theory

Notification for Collection and Use of Personal Data

You are notified that by completing the Institute for Nuclear Theory Undergraduate Research Network (INTURN) program application, the University of Washington (UW) is collecting certain data about you. UW Institute for Nuclear Theory (INT) is collecting data in order to process your application to be considered for the INTURN program.

UW may also use this data to comply with its legal obligations. Data records will be maintained for at least their minimum required retention according to the applicable UW Records Retention Schedule(s):

- Administration Records for Grants/Contracts Awarded
- <https://finance.uw.edu/recmgt/recordseries/Admin-Grant-Contracts-Awarded>

Records will be accessed by those who have a legitimate UW-related business need to access them.

For additional information, to request access to a copy of your personal data, or to request certain data be removed, you may contact the INT Director, Sanjay Reddy (sareddy@uw.edu), and INT Administrator, Kimberlee Choe (jy24@uw.edu).

If your data protection related questions or concerns are not addressed after contacting the organization area to which you provided data, you may also contact UW's designated data protection officer, Ann Nagel, Institutional Privacy Official and Associate Vice Provost for Privacy, uwprivacy@uw.edu.